Acknowledgments

First of all I would like to express my gratitude to my colleague Prof. Yasuhiko Nagano for arranging my stay in Japan so pleasantly during my time as a 'Visiting Scholar' at the National Museum of Ethnology, Osaka from July 2003 to June 2004. Likewise to my friend Dr. John Moores of London University who has taken the trouble to go through the whole manuscript and check the English and make suggestions. Hearty thanks are also due to Dr Françoise Prommaret of CNRS, Paris who made a number of useful suggestions and finally not the least to Satoko Suzuki for her painstaking care in preparing the manuscript for publication.

In an article (Karmay 1998: No.3, p.42) published in 1990 I said I was intending to publish a book on Gyalrong, but till now I have never managed to get on with it. So it is a pleasure to be able to fulfill this promise at last and I hope that it will contribute to a furthering of the interest in research into the history and culture of the Gyalrong people.
